BARBARA LIVICK
livick@parkerrosen.com

Barb Livick has more than 25 years of experience as a paralegal. She began her legal career as an administrative assistant in the Wisconsin Attorney General's office. There her work focused on the areas of Environmental Protection, Collections, and defending Personnel Commission appeals and Civil Rights complaints. In 1982, she joined the former Minneapolis law firm Popham, Haik, Schnobrich & Kaufman, Ltd. where she coordinated a team of attorneys and paralegals in defending public transportation tort liability claims and litigation. After leaving Popham, Haik, Barb was employed as a senior paralegal coordinating litigation for a healthcare corporation with offices throughout the United States. Barb was employed by Smith Parker from 1996 to November 2005, providing litigation support primarily in the areas of personal injury, employment, and commercial litigation.
