DOUGLAS G. WARDLOW
wardlow@parkerrosen.com

Douglas Wardlow practices in the areas of commercial and real estate litigation, with experience handling contract, eminent domain, employment, human resources, franchise, consumer fraud, securities, tobacco and other business and real estate litigation matters. Mr. Wardlow's clients include commercial and residential real-property owners as well as business owners.

Mr. Wardlow comes to Parker Rosen, LLC, from Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP in Washington D.C., where he litigated multi-million dollar international trade disputes. Mr. Wardlow also practiced business litigation at Faegre & Benson LLP in Minneapolis, representing both Minnesota and national companies in a number of contract, real estate, and other litigation matters.

After graduating with honors from Georgetown University Law Center, Mr. Wardlow served for one year as law clerk to the Hon. Justice G. Barry Anderson of the Minnesota Supreme Court.

While studying at Georgetown University, Doug clerked for the Senate Judiciary Committee and worked in the office of Congressmen Gil Gutknecht. He spent a summer interning at the law firm of Lee and Li in Taipei, Taiwan, where he worked construction-related disputes.

A student of Chinese language and culture, Doug is proficient in Mandarin Chinese and has traveled to China on several occasions. Doug is also active in politics and public service. He serves as campaign manager for State Representative Lynn Wardlow and has volunteered on several political campaigns.
